SHOWER

Given to Rev. G. J. Daniel at Mr. and Mrs. Omer Jones'.

Hats Are Taken Off To Jeffersontown Sun-day School—A Good News Letter From Middletown.

Middletown, May 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Omer Jones entertained at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at 8 o'clock for Rev. G. J. Daniel, pastor of the Christian church. Her home was beautifully decorated in cut flowers. About one hundred guests attended coming in from Shively, Louisville, and were stopped in front of Mr. Jones' home. This was a complete surprise to Mr. Daniel. For a while he seemed overcome with heartfelt gratitude to his many friends and members of his congregation. A large basket was on a table in the reception hall where the guests put their boxes and packages. A large number of useful presents consisting of many beautiful ties, silk and lyle thread hoses, handkerchiefs, suspenders, shirts, handsome umbrella, $12.00 in money and other articles too numerous to mention were given. After a literary program Mrs. Jones invited all to the dining room, where refreshments were served. Misses Elizabeth Jones and Sue Blackwell served from two cut glass bowls. Before the guests departed for their homes Mr. Daniel made an address to the crowd, expressing his thanks and wish continued success.

Malone, of Pee-wee Valley, and Mrs. J. B. Guthrie were guests of Mrs. Jas. Davis Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clem and little daughter, of Indianapolis, are visiting his brother, Mr. J. N. Clem, of Pee-wee Valley.

Mrs. Arthur Hill, Miss Hattie Hill and Mrs. H. C. Hill attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. W. E. Klem, at a regular cemetery, but said that at a regular meeting of the Board he would be in favor of building the addition. Messrs. Roy and Sivley were not present, but it is said, they are opposed to the graded school plan. It is very well understood that if the election next Saturday fails to carry that good school buildings will be erected by the Board in these districts.

Miss Susie Buchanan, of Paducah, and Ethel Buchanan were guests of Mrs. Ed. Roland last week. We sympathize with the young woman in the bereavement over the loss of their dear father, Mr. Philip Buchanan, who has recently died after an illness of only a few days.

Rev. J. J. Heizer, of Anchorage Presbyterian church, preached at Pleasant Grove church Sunday afternoon. Quite a good crowd attended and his splendid sermon was very much appreciated. Mr. Heizer is one of our most popular ministers.

Mrs. John Waters spent the weekend at LaGrange with her brother, Dr. Hampton Cox, who is ill with appendicitis and undergoing an operation.

We Link to Get Letters Like This.

Turlock, Cal., May 4, 1911—Editor Jeffersonian: Enclosed you will find my check for $1, so that I may be in time to send you my paper. I appreciate Jeffersonian's weekly fringe from two cut glass bowls.

Before the guests departed for their homes Mr. Daniel made an address to the crowd, expressing his thanks and

Very cordially,

J. EDWARD BLAINE

BIG DINNER

Is Asked For By Commercial Club President.

W. J. Semion Urges Citizens To Make Gala Day of Opening of Jefferson Heights June 12.

The Commercial Club at its meeting May 1st, passed a resolution calling for making a "gala day" of June 12th, the occasion being the opening of an auction sale of lots in the new subdivision, "Jefferson Heights."

This occasion will be, and ought to be, the biggest thing we have ever had in old Jeffersonton. The chances are we will have by far the largest number of visitors ever known here on any day, and it is up to us to show those strangers in our midst that we know how to hold out the glad hand and extend that hospitality for which our State is noted at home and abroad. Let us do to the people that our town is a pleasant place to come to, visit, to come and live in. Let them go home feeling that it was good to have been here; that our people were glad to have them among us; that we will welcome them with open arms, and extend them a most hearty greeting, so they can decide to come and live among us. Let them see that we are a God-loving, hospitable and friendly people, and that we want more citizens of the same type; that we have the healthiest, the most sociable and best community in Jefferson county, in the state of Kentucky, in the nation. Convincing them that the sun shines brighter, the grass grows greener, the flowers smell sweeter, and the girls are more beautiful in old Jeffersonton than anywhere else in this, the greatest old State in this whole union. In fact, Kentucky is the greatest state, Jefferson the greatest county, and Jeffersonton the greatest spot on God's green footstool.

Let's all get together and have an old-fashioned family basket picnic on the grounds, setting a mid-day lunch to our visitors and extending them such other entertainment as we can showing them thereby that we live not for ourselves alone, but for the good of one another and that the pleasure of having them among us is properly appreciated.

To this end I, as president of the Commercial Club, invite all citizens of this community, to bring your baskets full of good things and join us on that day and let's make it one to be remembered—not only by our visitors, but by ourselves as well.

Will you do it? Anyone who will join us and help in this matter, be it man, woman or child (who want them), please notify me by mail or otherwise. Yours very truly,

W. J. SEMION, President Jeffersonton Commercial Club.

N. B.—We will have a band of music for the day and will get half hour street cars that day. Come and help.

IMPROVEMENT

Promised by County Board of Education Provided Graded School Election Does Not Carry.

A meeting of the County Board of Education was called for last Saturday afternoon to consider the graded school question for the Middletown school. A graded school election will be held in this district next Saturday, and quite a number who are opposed to the graded school were anxious that the Board go on record as to what it intended doing in the event the district voted against the graded school and upon their request the members of the Board met to consider the matter.

It is said that all the members of the County Board, with one exception, favored the county bonding plan, and one opposed the graded school. It was moved by S. W. Wetherby, seconded by J. B. Miller, that an additional room be built for the Middletown school. This motion was amended by E. C. Wurtzel, seconded by J. P. Shively, that school districts Nos. 20 and 72, Gage and Hazelwood, where a vote will be taken also Saturday on the graded school question, be included in the motion and that new rooms be built in these districts also.

Those voting for the motion were Supt. O. J. Stivers, E. C. Wurtzel, Chas. Kurz, S. D. Wetherby, J. B. Miller and J. P. Shively. W. W. Klem, who was a regular member, but said that at a regular meeting of the Board he would be in favor of building the addition. Messrs. Roy and Sivley were not present, but it is said, they are opposed to the graded school plan. It is very well understood that if the election next Saturday fails to carry that good school buildings will be erected by the Board in these districts.

BUECHEL.

Hikes' School Closes After Successful Term.

Death of "Uncle" Mack Lacy," Well Known Civil War Veteran—Other Items of Interest.

Buechel, May 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Moore and family, of Louisville, will move into the Reynold's place in a few days to remain here for the Summer.

W. R. Williams, of St. Louis, the well known song writer and musical composer is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. and family, from Louisville, J. Stivers, from Bowling Green Friday evening.

The Buechel Commercial Club met Monday evening to discuss good roads. President Ed. C. Roy and all other officers were present. The next meeting will take place May 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fegenbush spent Friday in Louisville.

Hikes' school will close Friday, May 12, after a very successful term. The teachers, Miss Ada Hanks, principal, and Mrs. Belle C. Lewis, assistant, can feel very proud of the work they have done this year. Miss Hanks has had particular success in entrance into high school successfully; Miss Minnie Vogt winning the highest average of all the schools in the county. The other three graduates are Miss Annie Fegenbush and Louis Graff and Lee Stivers. Mrs. Lewis is very much loved by her little pupils, and many of them will be sorry when the last day of school comes.

A crowd of young people from Buechel, Newburg and Louisville will go to Harrold's Creek Saturday on an all-day fishing excursion.

Miss Cleone Summers entertained Sunday Misses Ella Crawford and Sadie Skiles, Messrs. W. R. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Summers.

Mrs. Ludwig was the guest of Mrs. T. S. Skiles the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kaiser, Sr., entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Kandace Wallace and little son and Albert Kanader of Louisville.

Miss Lillie Kochler spent several days this week with her sister, Mrs. John Westerman.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Stewart Carpenter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Westerman Sunday evening.

Mrs. T. S. Skiles and Misses Mayme Kaiser and Dorothy Elizabeth Skiles returned from Lebanon Wednesday evening. All report a delightful trip.

Hikes Sunday school had its "home coming" Sunday morning. About eighty were present. Bro. Fred Reeder, Dr. J. L. Tinsley and others, Mrs. H. C. Hikes, superintendent, spoke to the school, and interesting papers were read by Misses Dorothy Skiles and Gertrude Hikes, in regard to the work the school was doing.

Miss Ebie Rommel spent Tuesday evening in Louisville the guest of friends.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler are suffering from measles and chicken pox.

Miss Nellie Gallagher was operated on for appendicitis Saturday in Louisville. Her condition is critical. Drs. Hays and B. C. Gribble are the attending physicians.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gallagher are both ill at this writing.

Bro. G. F. Tinsley preached at Newburg Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

"Uncle" Mack Lacy" died from the effects of a fall down stairs. Uncle Mack fought in the civil war and was widely known among the people here.

Tobie-Bischoff.

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season was that of Miss Mary Tobie and Mr. Joseph Bischoff, which was solemnized Wednesday morning, May 3rd, at 8 o'clock at St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic church in Louisville. Rev. Father Assent performed the ceremony. Miss Lillie Tobie, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr. Frank Bischoff, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bridal party entered the church a beautiful wedding march was rendered. The altar was artistically decorated with cut flowers, palms and ferns and numerous lighted candles. The bride was gowned in white satin messaline, made on tunic effect and trimmed with lace bands. Her veil was caught with bride's roses and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and smilax. The bridesmaid wore a gown of white embroidery with pink satin girdle and she carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations, caught with pink satin ribbon.

The ceremony was followed by an old-fashioned wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tobie, at Okolona. The house was decorated with wild flowers. The bridal cake was trimmed in pink roses and clapsed hands under a wedding bell, which formed the center piece of the bride's cake. A large number of relatives and friends were present. They received many handsome and useful presents and all extended their heartiest congratulations.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tobie and is one of the most charming young ladies of Okolona.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Buechel. They immediately went to housekeeping in Buechel.

Visit to J. W. Knader.

J. C. Alcock made a short visit to Station, last Friday. Mr. Knader is past 71 years old but is active and carries on his packing business and attends to his farm of 140 acres the same as a man of much younger years. He killed forty-two hogs the past winter, but his meat is in such demand he couldn't supply the people with as much as they desired. He believes in keeping things in tip-top shape and set out 3,000 forest trees in his place this spring and all are living. His improvements are the best and he uses the latest methods in the killing and packing of his meat.

The Louisville Times 10c a week. Prompt delivery. Welford Alcock.

LINCOLN WAY

Is Over Old L. & N. Turnpike
Say Speakers at Meeting.

South Jefferson Commercial Club Holds Enthusiastic Meeting—Pendleton Beckley and Others Speak.

The real Lincoln Way was discussed at a meeting of the South Jefferson Commercial Club at Richland Hall on the Oreck car line last Friday afternoon. The president, Jos. Kennedy, presided, and the secretary, J. P. Moremen, was on hand. Several enthusiastic speeches were made and important committees appointed relative to boosting the Lincoln Way. A large crowd was present and it was agreed by all that the real Lincoln Way was along the L. & N. pike, as the State Legislature has already named it. The name was to take that name from its original.

The first speaker was Pendleton Beckley, of Louisville, who in a very eloquent way urged the citizens along the pike to get together and improve the road and beautify the property along the route. He said that the Legislature had named the L. & N. pike the "Lincoln Way" and was not very likely to change its name. He hoped that the people along the other roads desiring the Lincoln Way would build good roads, but when you go to Lincoln farm you should go the real Lincoln Way in the L. & N. pike. He said no road could be made better than this, which is one of the national turnpike system and known all over the country; that there was not a foot of the road that should not be called Lincoln Way, as Abraham Lincoln had traveled over the road many times and there were many scenes of historic value and natural beauty along the route to impress the traveler going to and from the Lincoln farm. Mr. Beckley said that the Bardstown road is seventeen miles longer than the L. & N. pike when you go to Lincoln farm. If there is ever an election held to Lincoln Farm, said Mr. Beckley, it would have to go along the real Lincoln Way, as there were too many large hills along the other routes. He spoke of the beautiful and historic scenery around West Point and the many reasons why the L. & N. pike should be maintained as Lincoln Way. He quoted Theodore Roosevelt, who said that there was only one other name higher in the minds and hearts of the American people than Lincoln's, and that was George Washington, and it was well to think a great deal about it. After Mr. Beckley's speech, he was unanimously elected honorary member of the club.

Magistrate S. S. Hollis was present and was called upon for a speech. He said that he was sorry that he was not a speaker, but was glad to be present and stand up for the real Lincoln Way. He spoke of the contemplated bridge across Salt river at West Point and said that bids were in and would be let within a few months. Mr. Hollis is at present having work done on the L. & N. pike and will use a large amount of asphalt that is being donated by Col. Malcolm H. Crump, of Bowling Green, for the Lincoln Way.

Dr. Dudley, a physician of Valley City, where the quarry is located, Dr. Reynolds said that Jefferson county should get busy with the plans for building the bridge across Salt river at West Point: that Hardin county was ready and he saw no reason why Jefferson was not ready. He said that the building of Lincoln Way in Jefferson county depended upon getting this bridge. He said that he wanted this Commercial Club to take the matter up with the commissioners having the work in charge. The doctor also urged the people to plant trees and otherwise beautify the Lincoln Way.

Capt. Alexander Lawson arose and in a very deliberate manner said that seventy-two years ago his mother named him Alexander Lawson, and he was still going by that name; that a short time since the Kentucky Legislature named the L. & N. turnpike the Lincoln Way—and it was still the Lincoln Way, and you couldn't get anything else out of it. He said the citizens along the other routes could call all the good roads they wanted to, but should not attempt to copy the top.

C. J. Alcock, editor of The Jeffersonian, was called upon to tell of what he thought of the situation. In a few words he commended the club for its enthusiasm and urged co-op-

Addams! Addams! So Say We All, Gentlemen!

Is there a Democrat but believes that if Senator McCreary gets the Gubernatorial nomination, the chances of his party's success will be in doubt? Is it not the part of wisdom, therefore, for him to turn to some one who can bring the people to victory? William Addams, of Harrison county, is such a candidate. Place your banner in his hands and he will give you the hope and enthusiasm that must land us all winners. A few weeks since we were left floundering, feeling that there were none to make an active fight to oppose Senator McCreary for the nomination, but since the manly stand and clean-cut stances of Mr. Addams, our doubts are at last thrown aside and hope has taken the place of our doubts in our party success.

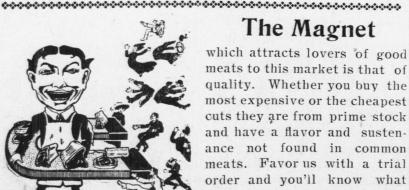

There be times when our darkest periods are just before the dawn, and Democracy in Kentucky appears to have passed through them. From now on every one should feel, with such a man as Addams to lead, that success must surely come.

Mr. Addams has a number of relatives and friends in "Old Shelby," and, though this county is in Mr. McCreary's district yet it can be turned to the Harrison county man who can lead the party triumphant in November.

Let us stop our party bickerings. Addams is a man we can unite upon, and let us all, therefore, get together and be for Addams.

Let the party slogan be, "Party success," and Mr. Addams will be selected. He is the man of the hour, the man you want, the man you need, the man you must have.

Addams! Addams! So say we all! Addams!

eration by all the people along the route and the beautifying of the roadway. He said that he did not favor any one section of the county for anything; that he was publishing a county newspaper for the people of all the county and stood ready to help any good movement for the betterment of every road in old Jefferson.

After he finished speaking a motion carried making him and S. S. Hollis and J. M. Myers honorary members.

J. M. Myers, of West Point, was called on for a talk and responded in a very earnest manner, indorsing the improvement of Lincoln Way.

President Bishelhauser, of St. Helen's Bank, and quite a number of others made short talks.

A committee was appointed to investigate the building of the bridge at West Point and one to meet with the members of the Fiscal Court last Saturday, at which time citizens along the Bardstown road had an engagement to meet and ask for an appropriation from the court for improving the Bardstown road.

The chairman of Col. Bennett H. Young, Messrs. H. S. McNutt and W. C. Kennedy, was named to visit the City Hall, Louisville, and request the members of the Fiscal Court to make the road between the two cities a good one.

Col. Bennett H. Young, of the Louisville and Southern Railroad, was present to "Lincoln Way."

H. W. Moremen, in a letter to the club, offered to pay the cost of two car loads of asphalt given by Col. Crump, and made many valuable suggestions for the success of the movement.

Quite a number of other prominent men attended the meeting and a very interesting meeting in every way was held.

A committee, composed of young ladies, was named to plan for a big picnic on an early date.

BIG DAY IN JEFFERSONTOWN.

The citizens of Jeffersontown and vicinity are preparing for a big day on Monday, June 12th, the occasion being the opening of Jefferson Heights, the prettiest sub-division in the county, and the meeting to be paid for the school place from a corner of land in this beautiful sub-division. The local Commercial Club is taking the leading part in getting up a grand old-fashioned basket dinner and the president has appointed a large number of ladies and gentlemen to see that the day is made a success in every way. Prof. H. N. Reubelt, president of the Jefferson County Bank, will, on behalf of the Jefferson Heights Land Co., present the school with the handsome gift, and deliver an address, which will be responded to by Prof. R. H. Snively, trustee of the school. A brass band will be on hand to furnish music for the day.

The people of this place are justly in being enthusiastic about this occasion, for Jeffersontown is certainly favored above all other sections of the county by having Messes. McFerran and Sprowl to come here with such a magnificent gift and opening up such a beautiful sub-division. From ten to fifteen thousand dollars have already been expended in beautifying the grounds and in building the streets and sidewalks. Jeffersontown is receiving a notoriety that will help the town, hopefully, for many years to come. The 12th is being advertised all over the country. The Jeffersonian has printed bills twice the size of one of our pages, which will be distributed far and near, besides advertisements will be placed in all the leading newspapers. Jeffersontown, as well as Jefferson Heights, will get the benefit of this publicity. The citizens here have a right to be jubilant.

The best feature of the whole thing is the fact that a magnificent school building will be erected upon the lots. The Jeffersonian does not know how the school will be built at this time but will probably be built by money received from the corporation the district receives from the fund raised by bonding the county for building schools, which will be supplemented by donations and by the County Board of Education. If the bond issue fails to carry, a graded school tax will be voted, or the school built by popular subscriptions. One thing is assured, and that is, a model school will be erected. In addition to giving the five acres free, Mr. McFerran will give his share of the profits from the sale of the lots, which will be used towards the building of the school.

In the meantime, let all of the citizens of the community join hands in the boosting of the town and in the making of June 12 a grand success. Let the strangers know that we are wide-awake and invite them to come and locate among us. They will help us build the school, and also the town. We now have a lovely place to live in as well as to die in. Until we have a school in the county, we have a graveyard where we bury all of the "dead" ones. We have no room for dead people and have prepared a place for them. If you are alive, come to a live town.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, baysouls, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs, the typhus, cholera and fevers, weakens, aches, the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs. "The electric bitters completely drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Luccana, N. C., "and I've had the health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy. Only 25¢ at all drug-gists.

GRADED SCHOOL VS. BOND ISSUE.

On next Saturday four school districts in Jefferson county will take a vote on the graded school question. A tax will be voted upon amounting from twenty to fifty cents upon the hundred dollars worth of taxable property. The Jeffersonian would fail to do its duty if we did not give our opinion upon such an important step by the county's schools. We have our suggestion to make. It may not be worth any more than a suggestion from any one else in the county, and we do not claim for it more than this. However, for the past three years we have studied the situation here, and have learned right and wrong for the betterment of the schools in Jefferson county. With the assistance of the newspapers, the improvement leagues, commercial clubs, and others, the Rural School Development Committee has offered a scheme that, if put into effect, will build good schools all over the country, the proposition being to bond the county, or in other words, to tax the property holders ten cents on the hundred dollars for thirty years. To do this the Legislature will have to amend the school law. The citizens of Jefferson county have demonstrated the fact that they endorse such a movement.

Now, it seems to us, that the proposition to vote graded schools in four of the school districts is a grave mistake. In doing this, the property holders will be voting a tax of from twenty to fifty cents—not only for thirty years, but forever. Would it not be far better to vote a tax of ten cents for only thirty years—especially when you know by doing this at least sixteen model school buildings could be erected in the county? Would it not be better for each district to have a school, which, to have this many good schools in the county? Would property notadance in value more rapidly?

Mr. J. B. McFerran, chairman of the Rural School Committee, explains so well what the bond issue would mean to Jefferson county, that we quote the following paragraphs from him, which were published in the Louisville Herald:

"It means that county bonds can be negotiated on a basis of 4 per cent. interest, whereas district bonds, if they can be sold at all (and in many cases they cannot) would have to pay 6 per cent, or over, the interest. It is better to sell them at less than par being created by allowing the purchaser 'a take out' in the value of commission.

It means that the schoolhouse can be erected in the most substantial manner, so that they would not need renewal for many years, and in which several generations of children could be properly cared for.

It means that the best type of buildings for the severalized schools, could be adopted and all built on one plan, enabling the contractors to build on several houses at the same time, thereby saving in considerable amount of money in their construction.

It means that if the people of all the educational divisions of the county, should so elect, all of the structures should be erected at the same time, thus insuring a speedy relief to present unfavorable conditions.

It means that there would be firmly established an open way whereby the people of different sections of the county can exercise their own judgment as to when they will proceed with the erection of the structures, so that the workers to proceed promptly with their work, the pro-rata share of bonds for each division can be sold to meet their needs. If an division desires to wait, its pro-rata of bonds can remain in the treasury subject to their call. This principle could easily be carried into the sub-districts, if desired.

It means that a Commission of three or five men of integrity and business capacity could be provided for, into whose hands the bonds, or the money, could be lodged and expended as needed, protected from waste either by graft or incompetency.

It means an equal chance for all the children of the entire county, rich or poor, white or colored.

It means that the county of Jefferson would be the first county in all the States to adopt this broad system of county provision for all its children. This plan is being agitated in other states, and the tendency in this direction is strong and vigorous and it soon will be adopted elsewhere.

Enterprises. We need capital in Kentucky.

It means that at least one county in Kentucky has jumped right to the head of the educational procession, instead of continuing the tailing process as heretofore.

It means a better class of teachers, as a rule, encouraging those at present engaged to further improve themselves, and assuring a greater number of others to become available.

It means a very considerable advance in the value of all classes of property in the county, as people, having secured a class education, are more anxious for their children in the country, will be much encouraged to move there.

It would mean a broad and more Christlike care of the weaker and more helpless parts of the county.

It would mean a drawing together in more sympathetic interest of all conditions of people, and be it remembered that in the accomplishment of this most desirable end, by the bond issue plan, we all save money to ourselves, because it is the most economical way.

It also means that if we, by inaction or shortsightedness, sit still and countenance without protest and persuasion the establishment of small district graded schools in a number of places in the county, this magnificent opportunity will pass by and it will not return."

BOND ISSUE

Explained By Chairman of Rural School Committee.

Most Economical and Speediest Way to Improve School Conditions - Better Than Graded Schools.

To the Editor of The Jeffersonian: There seems to be confusion in the minds of some of the people of the county as to the scope and intentions of those of us who are advocating a county-wide bond issue for the supplying of rural school plants commensurate with and adequate for a well articulated system of schools for the entire county. Neither the movement or the movers, contemplate even remotely, any forcible interference with any individual or any community. Whatever is done or undertaken must be entirely optional with the several communities interested. It is well understood and fully concurred in by the people interested in this movement, that each district or Educational Division of the county are amply to manage their local conditions as may seem best to them. Each of the County Educational condition as at present existing, will be left at the perfect liberty to let things remain as they are, or to go as far toward their betterment as they may at any time desire. We recognize fully and forthrightly that it is not only the right but the imperative duty of each community to manage their own educational matters without let or hindrance, but of course, we assume that all wise men are open to suggestion and that those who have been active in this county administration have studied the problem from all its different angles deeply, and they have come to the deliberate conclusion, which every pertinent development in the last two years has served to confirm, that the issue of bonds of the entire county for the purpose of supplying needed and fully adequate plans, that is grounds, buildings, and equipments, so situated as to best serve all the children of the county in the best manner possible.

sible, is the most economical, the speediest and the most comprehensive way in which to do the work, and they are confident that a tax levy of ten cents on the hundred dollars will be sufficient to furnish these plants in a perfectly up-to-date and fully adequate manner.

If the county will adopt this method and vote the bonds, the money to be expended by a special commission, either appointed or elected, they to make a fair division of the fund among the eight educational divisions of the county. In case any of the divisions, for reasons satisfactory to themselves, do not wish to improve their schools, the bonds will remain in the treasury subject to their call. In like manner any division wishing to improve promptly can have their apportionment of bonds sold and such buildings as they may desire erected immediately. In like manner the funds apportioned to each division can be used promptly for each of its subdivisions as may be desired by those several subdivisions. In this way the money will be available when wanted by the parties directly interested. Surely nothing could be fairer, and every thoughtful man will admit that a county bond will sell, with a much better price, I happen to know of a case in our own State, where the bonds of a graded school district, including a town of 2,000 population in one of the richest sections of the State, are not yet all placed. In contrast to this I may say that I have already had application from one of our largest banking houses in another state for an opportunity to bid on our county bonds if they are issued.

I have a letter from the Superintendent of one of the most progressive cities in Indiana, exploring the fact that we have not adopted the county-wide bond method, instead of the township unit they now have, and which they cannot conveniently change and advising us earnestly to stick to the county bond plan.

It is encouraging to see that the people of the county are awakening to the importance of improving their schools, but it ought not to be centered upon with only a half digested plan. Whatever is done now will beateful to our county for many years to come. A few ill-considered and half-baked graded school districts, in the wealthier sections of the county will be a short-sighted and fatal mistake. By holding together as a county and moving with thoughtful, persistent patience, we can attain the most splendid results, at much less cost and more quickly than in any other way.

Respectfully submitted to the parents, patrons and citizens of the county.

JOHN B. MCFERRAN,
Chairman State Development Committee of the Louisville Commercial Club.

COMMITTEES

Confer With Members of Fiscal Court in Regard To Appropriation For Lincoln Way

—No Action Taken.

Courier-Journal:—Members of the Fiscal Court of Jefferson county, sitting as a committee, Saturday, heard committee from the Louisville Commercial Club and representatives of the districts lying along the line proposed for the "Lincoln Way," who asked an appropriation for that part of the memorial boulevard which will lie in Jefferson county.

The Louisville speakers, while heartily commanding the general plan of constructing a first-class highway from Louisville to the old Lincoln homestead, declined to take sides with the advocates of either the Eighteenth-street road or the Bardstown road as the beginning of the roadway.

R. C. Cherry, of Bardstown, County Attorney for Nelson county, spoke in favor of a route by that place, urged the Fiscal Court to prove the Bardstown road to the limits of Bullitt county. After extending a few miles through Bullitt county, the route he advocated would extend twenty-nine miles through Nelson county, and the Fiscal Court of that county, he said, would take care of that stretch.

E. C. Wurtz spoke for the Eighteenth-street road route, claiming that the Legislature had given that route the name of "Lincoln Way," and describing the improvements he said are in progress along that road. He said he thought other districts should respect their "copyright" to the name.

Peter L. Atherton said that the route by Bardstown had been designed by its advocates "Central Lincoln road," and when Mr. Wurtz insisted that that was so similar to his as to be infringement, Mr. Atherton retorted: "Lincoln is too big a name for you to copyright it."

Other speakers expressed the belief that the name would make little difference. "People will travel the best road," said one, "regardless of its name."

The Fiscal Court Committee took no action in the matter.

There will be "Too Much of a Good Thing" in Jeffersontown on May 20 and 21.

Atends Superintendents Conference.

Superintendent Orville J. Stivers attended the superintendent's conference of the Western District, comprised of fifty-one counties, at Bowling Green last week. Out of the counties represented forty-nine superintendents were present, and Mr. Stivers gave that as the greatest educational meeting he ever attended. Speakers were there of natural fame. The most important questions considered were those pertaining to the rural schools. The superintendents endorsed the movement started by the Louisville Commercial Club to allow counties to bond themselves for school purposes. Mr. Stivers is anxious to have all the teachers in Jefferson county attend the Normal school at Bowling Green, and if opportunity to him he can give an opportunity to this school without cost to them.

COMPOUND CALLOUSSES

Tells Splendid Cure for Feet and All Foot Troubles.

A compound callosus is the secondary stage when it grows inward and pressure is applied to the toe. Callosus never cure themselves but always get worse, sometimes irritating the whole nervous system. The following is a most effective and safe remedy:—Dissolve one tablespoonful of Calcoide in a basin of hot water. Soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the toe parts. (Less time will not give the desired results.) The soreness will disappear immediately and the callosus can be easily peeled off. Repeat this for several nights. A little olive oil rubbed into skin is also beneficial.

This Calcoide is a very remarkable preparation for all foot ailments. Bunions, corns and ingrowing nails get instant relief and are soon cured. Bad smelling and sore feet need but a few applications. Calcoide is a registered trademark of the manufacturer and is found in doctor's use. Any druggist has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is usually enough to put the worst feet in fine condition. It will prove a blessing to persons who have been vainly trying ineffectual tablets and foot powders.
